EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jeffrey A. Wyand on March 17, 2005.

Claim 11, line 6, after "first pixels including," deleted "both of".

Claim 13, line 4, after "a metal layer," deleted "thin enough".

Claim 21, line 6, after "first pixels including," deleted "all three layers of".

Claim 21, line 12, deleted "three" and inserted -- first, second and third --.

Claim 21, line 17, deleted "three" and inserted -- first, second and third --.

Claim 22, line 4, after "a metal layer," deleted "thin enough".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The base claims are: 11 and 21.

The present claims are deemed allowable over the references of record since the references of record fail to disclose or render obvious a matrix arrangement meeting the claimed structural limitations in combination with first pixels including first and second organic light-emitting material layers and second pixels including only the second of the first and second organic light-emitting material layers (claim 11). Also, the present claims are deemed allowable over the references of record since the references of record fail to disclose or render obvious a matrix arrangement meeting the claimed structural limitations in combination with first pixels including first, second and third organic light-emitting material layers, second pixels including only the second and third of the first, second and third organic light-emitting material layers, and third pixels including only the third of the first, second and third organic light-emitting material layers (claim 21).

While the prior art of record discloses pixels with organic light-emitting material layers, the prior art of record fails to teach or render obvious different pixels having a different number of organic light emitting material layers.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
